Dear Mr. Ives:

Mr. Newell asked me to say that he will be very glad to see you on any day that you may arrange, and to have you bring the coins of which you spoke. If you could telephone a day in advance, he could probably arrange to be here at almost any time.

I hope we shall have the pleasure of seeing you again soon.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Dear Mr. Ives:

There is a vacancy in our list of Fellows, and if you care to accept the suggestion of becoming a Fellow, it would give me great pleasure to present your name at the meeting of our Council on Friday next.

As you probably know, the Fellows are limited to one hundred fifty in number, and the title to the Museum and its collections is vested in them. Consequently our desire is to enroll those who are really interested in our objects. Otherwise, the principal change is from dues of five dollars annually as Associate to fifteen as a Fellow.

I shall be very glad if the above expresses your favorable consideration.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

Dear Mr. Ives:

It gives me great pleasure to report that at the meeting of the Council held yesterday, you were unanimously elected a Fellow of the American Numismatic Society. The amount previously paid as an Associate is creditable against the dues of a Fellow, as you will note from the accompanying memorandum.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Ives:

I am sending you, herewith, the addresses of dealers whom I think may be of service to you in your trip to England and France. I sincerely hope so, and I am glad that you asked me to send them to you. Mention of Mr. Newell's name, or mine, in case there should be any need, might sometimes be of help.

I believe it would be of interest to you to visit La Monnaie, over on the west bank of the Seine. One of the men there - Mazerolle, may remember me if you care to ask for him. My reason for suggesting it, is that they have for sale the medals struck by the Mint, and these make such delightful souvenirs, of which one advantage is, the inexpensiveness of them in view of the present status of the franc.

I hope your trip will be a very successful one, and a very delightful experience.

Sincerely yours,

Enc.
